Subject: Arkansas Interfaith Choir Camp
Sunday, July 21 – Saturday, July 27, 2024

Warm greetings in the spirit of faith, harmony, and community! We hope this letter finds you well and enjoying all that the season has to offer.

We would like to invite the children of your community to next summer's 47th annual Arkansas Interfaith Choir Camp at Subiaco Abbey.

The camp is for children having completed 3rd grade through those entering the 12th. Choral experience is not required - just a love of singing!

AI Choir Camp is staffed by 30+ professional and dedicated lay people and clergy on the beautiful and inspiring campus of Subiaco Abbey. We offer children a week away to sing, play, meet new friends, and create life-long memories. Beyond our love of song and play, we employ storytelling and scripture to remind the children of their vibrant potential for carrying patience, steady kindness, and God's compassion into the wide world.

Choir Camp provides a safe, nurturing environment for children to explore and grow. Many of our campers return year after year, often bringing their friends! Will you help spread the word by displaying or distributing this flyer?

Anyone wishing to learn more or register may do so online now:

Warmest regards, and thank you for your attention to this invitation!

Sincerely,

Charles A. Rigsby, Camp Director

Subject: New Name And Thank You

Sincere thanks to the Arkansas Interfaith Conference for sponsoring Choir Camp since 1992. They are no longer an active organization, but their “more alike than different” message continues to inspire our camp’s fellowship. Choir Camp gladly continues with its new name:

Arkansas Interfaith Choir Camp

And we are now sponsored by St. Luke's Church in Hot Springs National Park, AR. Our thanks for their support!

Our continuing thanks to the countless generous donors who have made this camp a reality for generations of children.
